

Diocesan Centenary Services on Sunday 29 November 2009

Intergenerational Service (10am -12pm at Suntec City Hall 6)

We invite the members (adults, youth and children) of our Anglican churches to join us for the intergenerational service in the morning with Holy Communion, with a seating capacity of 10,000. This service will be family-friendly, children-friendly and elderly-friendly, and in 2 languages. We are privileged to have Rev Timothy Ewing-Chow sharing a lively message. An offering will be collected, and this will go towards the Centenary Diocesan Trust Fund.

There will be a video that presents the many facets of our one Anglican family.

You may book your invitation cards (free admission by invitation card only) from your respective churches.

Due to limited parking, we encourage members to come by public transport (nearest MRT at City Hall) or by buses chartered by your church. Please be seated by 9.30am. Free seating. Dress code: Smart casual.

Thanksgiving and Consecration Service (5pm – 7.30pm at Suntec City Hall 6)

The Thanksgiving and Consecration Service is for the members (adults and youth) of our Anglican churches, especially parish/congregation leaders, ministry and youth leaders, and representatives from our deaneries, schools and community Services with a seating capacity of 10,000. We are privileged to also have invited guests from both local and overseas. The service will be in 2 languages.

There will be an integrated orchestra, band and choir, and a specially-composed Centenary Hymn. We will celebrate Holy Communion as a Diocese. An offering will be collected, and this will go towards the Centenary Diocesan Trust Fund.

Archbishop John Chew will address the Diocese with a special message as we “cross over” from this Centenary to the next.

There will be a video that presents the many facets of our one Anglican family.

You may book your invitation cards (free admission by invitation card only) from your respective churches.

Due to limited parking, we encourage members to come by public transport (nearest MRT at City Hall) or by buses chartered by your church. Please be seated by 4.30pm. Free seating. Dress code: Smart casual.